

Please understand the following before sending in your enrollment form.

BVCC is a new recurring center with lots of exciting changes. During this time of transition there will likely be changes to policy and availability of services. One of our biggest unknowns is timing enrollment with hiring of teachers. Although we are working hard to hire great teachers, we cannot guarantee spots until positions are filled. We may accept children under the assumption we will be staffed, but unfortunately until we grow a bit this is impossible to predict. We truly appreciate your patience and understanding as we make this shift.
