Welcome to the James Moore Tavern! The JMT is the perfect spot to kick back, warm up & listen to that one guy at the bar talk about how many runs he got in today even though he's been in here since 11 am. It's ok man, we see you.

Bolton Valley is full of stories dating back to 1966, a lot of them coming from this very place. If these walls could talk... oh boy.

There was that one guy who swore he invented the hockey stop. One time someone tried to trade a ski pole for a round of drinks. The James Moore Tavern has heard it all—from tales of powder stashes that 'no one else found' to heated debates about whether skiing or snowboarding is cooler. (They're both cool.)

Grab a pint, settle in, and let the good times roll. From our family to yours, thanks for sharing Bolton Valley with us.
